

The PALM COURT

Tea for Two? Or is it Two for Tea?

Eloise & The Palm Court host the very talented Etiquette Instructor, Lisa Richey, for four days this summer. Lisa will inspire even the most Eloise-y-est in your family to become polished and polite all in just one delightful afternoon.

You will start your day at The Plaza in the charming Eloise Tea Room where you will learn about the history of tea while Lisa provides instruction on the correct way to take afternoon tea. Afterwards you will be escorted to the world-famous Palm Court where Lisa will provide one-on-one coaching. Your child will learn how to hold a tea cup, properly cut a scone, quietly stir, as well as, how to pick up a napkin, interrupt a conversation, and much, much more.

Four sessions are available: July 11th, 18th, 25th, & August 1st.

1:45 Check-in at Eloise at The Plaza

2:00-2:45 Etiquette instruction

3:00-4:00 Tea at The Palm Court

\ Only for ages 7 and up.*

This class includes: etiquette instruction, tea for one child and one adult, an Eloise keepsake, and The Plaza's Golden Rules of Etiquette book: $150.00. For reservations all 212.546.5460.

Reservations are a must, as seating is limited for this rawther extraordinary afternoon.

Lisa Richey is the creator and author of Manners To Go™ which is a fun innovative activity kit that provides confidence and social skills for our future leaders. This kit has been featured in publications such as the New York Times, Better Homes and Gardens, and Woman's World. Lisa has also appeared on network television including CN8, NBC News Dallas, Texas and CBS's Eye on Philadelphia. For more information about Lisa and Manners To Go, please visit her website at www.mannerstogo.com.

The Plaza.